Damn Good Day

Podunk

Today I feel so alive
Better than I ever did before
It must be a good day to die
Cause lately I can't seem to get enoughAnd if I could, you know I wouldDamn good day to die
Damn good day to die
Damn good
Damn good dayToday I feel so fine
Better than I ever did before
It's got to be a good day to die
I do believe I found me a new loveAnd if I could, you know I would
Because it feels goodDamn good day to dieEverything is wonderful
Everything is wonderful
Everything's so beautiful
Everthing is beautifulDamn good day to die
