

I Won't Run

Curt Anderson

If could put a face to love
I swear it's you
If I could hear the sound of hope
It would sing your name
Oh oh oh oh, oh it would sing your name If blessed are the pure of heart
Then you're pure gold
If what you do means more than what you say
Your life'll stand up with the best of them
Oh oh oh, with the best of them You showed me there's a God who loves
You taught me how to stand on my own two feet
And when shadows try to hide the sun
I won't run
You showed me how to live for more
You taught me when I give I'm not left with nothing
If I could put a face to love
I swear it's you
So I won't run If I could reach to where you are
Would you hold me close one more time
If I could keep your words alive
Then you're never gone
Oh oh oh oh, then you're never gone
