

Burn Rubber on Me (Why You Wanna Hurt Me)

The Gap Band

Woo, I gave you my money, I gave you my time
Why you wanna hurt me, girl
Are you serious, I'm just curious
Why you wanna hurt me, girl Just because you're not for real
Why you wanna hurt me, girl
Just because you're not for real
Why you wanna hurt me, girl Never, ever had a lover
Who put the pedal to the mettle
And burn rubber on me, Charlie
Oh, no You took my money, you took my time
Made me think everything was fine
Then you upped and ran away
And made me just go crazy I never, ever had a lover
Who put the pedal to the metal
And burn rubber on me, Charlie
Oh, no, no, no Just because you're not for real
Why you wanna hurt me, girl
Just because you're not for real
Why you wanna hurt me, girl I never, ever had a lover
Who put the pedal to the metal
And burn rubber on me, Charlie
Oh, no, no, no Just because you're not for real
Why you wanna hurt me, girl
Just because you're not for real
Why you wanna hurt me, girl You told me to go up the block
And get you a strawberry pop
When I got back to the flat
You had burned rubber out the back I went to the closet and saw no clothes
All I saw was hangers and poles
I went to the phone and called your mother
And told me you had burned rubber on me, Charlie Oh, no, no
Oh, no, no
Oh, no, no Just because you're not for real
Why you wanna hurt me, girl
Just because you're not for real
Why you wanna hurt me, girl I never, ever had a lover
Who put the pedal to the metal
And burned rubber on me, Charlie
Oh, no, no, no, no, oh, no, yeah, yeah Just because you're not for real

Why you wanna hurt, me girl
Just because you're not for real
Why you wanna hurt me , girl You took my money, you took my time
Made me think everything was fine
Like the clock on the wall, said ding-ding-dong
Got to find another lover that won't be gone She won't put the pedal to the metal
And burn rubber, burn rubber, on me, Charlie
No, no, no, no I never, ever had a lover
Who put the pedal to the metal
And burned rubber on me, Charlie No, no, no, no, no
No, no, no, no, no, no
