Waltzing By The Ohio

George Morgan

(Waltzing waltzing by the Ohio)I was waltzing by the Ohio river of dreams
With the girl of my dreams in my arms
And the music beautiful music was the breeze through the trees
As the moonlight played over her charmsShe promised to always be faithful and true
But we drifted apart now I'm lonesome and blue
And another is waltzing by the river of dreams
With the girl of my dreams in his arms(I was waltzing by the Ohio river of dreams
With the girl of my dreams in my arms
And the music beautiful music was the breeze through the trees
As the moonlight played over her charms)
