

Hell's Home

Three Sixes

Welcome to the tomb your fate awaits you inside a sentence to eternal slaughter in the prison of fire I'm the face of pain Hell's open, golden gate the unholy crematorium to all that I've slain I'll amputate your soul while I slash through your flesh mutilate your fucking carcass as you gasp your last breath I'm pre-meditated murder homicide by six times I am home, I am Hell
I am death I'm alive Cold blood bleeds through possessed haunted walls feel infernal terror start to rip you apart feasting from your fears, I devour your soul Death is my name, from Hell I've returned Hell's Home
Hell's Home
Hell's Home Weak attempts by your priests to try to exorcise me I defy with fire from Hell's blistering heat I deny your book of lies rape the holy mans mind burn his skin, reject his faith and swarm the fucker with flies I'm the homicidal drive inside the murdering soul hear my voice, squeeze the trigger spray the brains on the wall horrified in terror while you scream to your god I'll claim your sacred territory with an inverted cross Cold blood bleeds through possessed haunted walls feel infernal terror start to rip you apart
feasting from your fears, I devour your soul
Death is my name, from Hell I've returned Hell's Home

Hell's Home

Hell's Home
Sacreligious cemetery of pain penetentiary of torment dooming all I engrave I'm the last mistake you'll make there's no escape, no return I'm the final destination where your soul will burn
