

Golden

Chrisette Michele

Take me back in the day when loving was pure
Love ain't going away, love is always secure
Life's not always perfect but love's always forever
Let's let true love connect, let's try lasting together I'm so ready to love, I'm so ready to promise my all
I'm so ready to give 'til the day that my life is no more
I'll be everything that this woman could possibly be
'Cause I'm ready to be like the olden days
When commitment was golden Be the man of my dreams and get down on one knee, love
Say you'll be all I need and then ask me to marry you, my love
Let's take two golden bands and let's walk down the aisle, love
I'll say I do and you'll say I do, make a golden commitment, oh I'm so ready to love, I'm so ready to promise my all, all
(Promise my all)
And I'm so ready to give 'til the day that my life is no more
(My life is no more) I'll be everything that this woman could possibly be, yes, I will (Possibly be)
'Cause I'm ready to be like the olden days
When commitment was golden
(Golden) Let's last forever
No typical American, shady love
Let's stay together
May God smile upon our everlasting love I'm so ready to love, I'm so ready to promise my all, yes, I am
(Promise my all)
I'm so ready to give 'til the day that my life is no more
(My life is no more) And I'll be everything that this woman can possibly be, yes, I will (Possibly be)
'Cause I'm ready to be like the olden days
When commitment was golden
(Golden) I'm so ready to love, I'm so ready to promise my all, yeah, yeah
(Promise my all)
And I'm so ready to give 'til the day that my life is no more
(My life is no more) I'ma be everything that this woman could possibly be (Possibly be)
'Cause I'm ready to be like the olden days
When commitment was golden
(Golden) Golden, golden, golden, golden love
Our commitment is golden
