Pitter-pat

Erin Mccarley

Tugged the moon into the ground
Turned this bedroom upside down tonight
Took my faith and I breathed it out
Then walked right through a cloud of flashing lights
Bright lies.
Pain takes my heart's place
The love we made
We cant erase it
Don't wanna face it
Pitter pat, the angel on my shoulder
Is haunting me tonight
Tick tock, the clock is getting louder
Ready for me to decide
I've lost my sense of right and wrong
Well-justified my soul to carry on
It feels so damn good to write off the rules

But when a new day breaks
I'm left a fool
I'm such a fool
Pain takes my heart's place
But your sweet sweet love,
Oh, I can taste it
But still can't face it
Pitter pat, the angel on my shoulder
Is haunting me tonight
Tick tock the clock is getting louder
Waiting for me to decide
The sun is coming down on me
Could fate be so unkind?
Pain takes my heart's place
The love we made remains
