Oxygen

Closure

I can't sit back and watch
You jump in the deep end
With him as your oxygen
'Cause it's a long way to fall
When you sink to the bottom
Hoping he'll change againYou're drowning in tears
And how can you breathe
Underwater
Believe those lies much longer
He cheats you, deceives you
With heavy hands he holds you
So cold, with a heart of fool's gold
Caught in the undertowYou'll always be the one
To say there's no black and white
Well I must be colour blind
'Cause it's a long way to fall
When you sink to the bottomYou're drowning in tears
And how can you breathe
Underwater
Believe those lies much longer
He cheats you, deceives you
With heavy hands he holds you
So cold, with a heart of fool's gold
Caught in the undertowAnd I know it's hard
To see through it now
'Cause he says he'll change
As he's pulling you downUnderwater
Believe those lies much longer
He cheats you, deceives you
With heavy hands he holds you
So cold, with a heart of fool's gold
Caught in the undertowI can't sit back and watch
You jump in the deep end
With him as your oxygen
