Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Loving you, loving you, loving youI was so confused, not knowing what to do with myself
I was being used, blinded I was headed for hell
Then God saved me, pulled me from the heatAlways on my mind
What a blessing that was sent to me
Together we will shine andI'm loving you
I'm loving you
Oh, I'm loving you
I'm loving youAnger in my heart, life was such a drag for me
Then I made a start to serve the living God, now I'm free
You're my whole life, you're my lasting dreamAlways on my mind
What a blessing that was sent to me
Together we will shine andI'm loving you
I'm loving you
Oh, I'm loving youI'm loving you
I'm loving you
Oh, I'm loving you, heyLoving you, loving you, loving you
