Half of You

Cat Power

When you give half of you
I want all of you
When you give half of you
I want all of youWhen you go back window
You see shadows
When you're shopping for me
'Cause when you give half of you
I want all of youSadness is a gentle mind
But a good women
Has her hands to useEmpty package of chips will tell you
What can be sold market
And what can belong to you when you giveWhen you give half of you
I want all of you
