Half of You

Cat Power

When you give half of you

I want all of you

When you give half of you

I want all of youWhen you go back window

You see shadows

When you're shopping for me

'Cause when you give half of you

I want all of youSadness is a gentle mind

But a good women

Has her hands to useEmpty package of chips will tell you

What can be sold market

And what can belong to you when you giveWhen you give half of you

I want all of you
