Two Lovers Stop

Freedy Johnston

Lovers cry
One last kiss by the edge
They're hand in handTwo lovers stop their hearts
Better than to be apart
They had run from a father to the highest bridge
Holding together as they jumped inLovers lie
On the hill where they once laid
Side by sideTwo lovers stop their hearts
Better than to be apartShe was rich, he was common
But she wouldn't say no
Lying together on the rocks belowThey had run from a father to the highest bridge
Holding together as they jumped inLovers cry
One last kiss by the edge
They're hand in handTwo lovers stop their hearts
Better than to be apart
Lovers cryLovers cry
Lovers cry
Lovers cry
