It's Been A Long Time

Rakim

It's been a long time Rakim the microphone soloist Follow procedures the crowd couldn't wait to see this Nobody been this long awaited since Jesus Who wouldn't believe this I heard the word on the street is I'm still one of the deepest on the mic since Adidas They said I changed the times from the rhymes that I thought of So I made some more to put the New World in Order With Mathematics, put your status above the average And help you rappers, make paragraphs with graphics 'Cause new days is dawnin', new ways of peformin' Brain stormin', I write and watch the night turn to mornin' On and on and, I got the whole world respondin' Rock, I keep it hot and blow the spot without warnin' The Emperor, well known for, inventin' a sentence Full of adventure, turnin' up the temperature Rush with adrenaline, how long has it been again To be in the state of min'd that Rakim is in?

It's been a long time
Rakim, the microphone soloist
It's been a long time
It's been a long time
Rakim

When I'm out proppin', either, hangin' or shoppin'
People see me stop and ask me when the album droppin'
The wait is over, information like a soldier
Like I told ya, greater stronger, now that I'm older
I broke the, code of silence with overloads of talents
My only challenge, is not to explode in violence
I'm Asiatic, and blazin' microphones a habit
At least once durin' the course of a day, it's automatic
In ghetto apparel, mind of a Egyptian Pharaoh
Far from shallow, thoughts travel like an arrow
Allah's monotony, so far they can't stop me
You know, Ra want property like Mumar Khadafi
More thoughts than Bibles, recital, taught disciples

A sawed off mic, so words scatter like a rifle
Thoughts that's trifle, I'm bustin' these for you
Aiyyo, technical difficulties is through
It's been a long time
Rakim, the microphone soloist
It's been a long time
Rakim, the microphone soloist
It's been a long time
Rakim, the microphone soloist
It's been a long time
It's been a long time
It's been a long time

When I float at night, I show 'em new heights, I go to write They know I strike with new prototypes to blow the mic Critics and biters, don't know where my source of light is Still leave authors and writers with arthritis Cursed kids like the Pyramids when they found the style First to ever let a rhyme flow down the Nile The rebirth of hip-hop'll be dropped now 'Cause the crowd didn't hear the original in a while So be alarmed, what you 'bout to see is the bomb Like, 3-D in' 'Nam, vivid like CD-Rom Info kept like "Internet.com" My notebook's my bond like the Holy Quran Since I came in the door, said it before But no I ain't down with Eric B no more At night the open mic be invitin' me to rhyme So yo I'm online, it's been a long time It's been a long time It's been a long time Rakim, the microphone soloist It's been a long time Rakim, the microphone soloist It's been a long time It's been a long time
