

Confusion

CONFUSION (Barb Barton) Am

The visionâ€™s grey and the visionâ€™s white
Donâ€™t know where to turn to donâ€™t know when to fight
The situation is smacking my nose
Tosses me into the road that I chose

The lesson seem to mistify me
Medicine bundle please answer me
Moonlight guiding my heartbeat tonight
Do I run or do I stand and fight

No, I donâ€™t want to leave here
No, I donâ€™t think I should stay
Something is burning down deep in my soul
The journey is hurting me and I donâ€™t know which way to go
No, no, no I donâ€™t want to leave here
No, I donâ€™t think I should stay
Your love is rooted down deep in my soul
I stand at the fork and I donâ€™t know which way to go

Confusionâ€™s with me again in the night
Donâ€™t know where to turn to donâ€™t know when to fight
The situation is smacking my nose
Tosses me into the road that I chose

No, I donâ€™t want to leave here
No, I donâ€™t think I should stay
Something is burning down deep in my soul
The journey is hurting me and I donâ€™t know which way to go
No, no, no I donâ€™t want to leave here
No, I donâ€™t think I should stay
Your love is rooted down deep in my soul
I stand at the fork and I donâ€™t know which way to go
