

Picture in a Frame

Mick Flavin

I finally found the words to say how long did I intend to stay I know you've wondered now and then how close our love is to the end

I think it's only fair that you know one of these days I'll have to go but I'll be proud to wear your ring til I'm just a picture in a frame

Storm clouds may gather and heavy rain may come when the storms are over we'll still share the golden sun and I'll still love you just the same til I'm just a picture in a frame

I hope the small bouquet of words are the sweetest you've ever heard cause I can't think of anyone I'd rather hold til life is done this love of mine for you will grow and grow and I just thought that you would like to know my love will be a burning flame til I'm just a picture in a frame

yes I'll still love you just the same til I'm just a picture in a frame
