

I'm an Open Road (feat. Jess Moskaluke)

Paul Brandt

You've been trying to escape, from all your yesterdays,
But they wont let you leave.
Some days you cover ground, but then you turn around before you get to me.
I'll still be here, a wild free frontier.
I'll be your alibi, your clear blue sky, your saving grace.
El Dorado found, your sacred ground, your hiding place.
Just run to me, I'll set you free, I'm an open road.
I'm an open road. We all get a little lost sometimes.
Straight from the borderlines.
Your love feels too far gone.
You can always count on me.
Rock beneath your feet.
You be the vagabond, I'll be an open road.
I'm an open road.
(HEY!) Headed toward the setting sun like desperados on the run.
I ain't goin' anywhere unless I'm there with you.
Horizons open far and wide.
You got the keys c'mon let's ride.
Let's fire it up and see how lost we get... together Be my sweet escape.
