

Rock and Roll Shoes

Johnny Cash

It seems like yesterday
I heard the people say
Son you were born to stray
Someday you'll settle down
I guess there'll come a time
Maybe I'll tow the line
Right now I'm doing fine
Rolling from town to town I don't care where I ride
I'll let my feet decide
Do anything but don't ask that I
Hang up my rock and roll shoes
Hang up my rock and roll shoes Guitars and ringing tones
In my blood and in my bones
Show me a bus
And I'll call it home
'Cause I don't wanna change I don't care where I ride
I'll let my feet decide
Do anything but don't ask that I
Hang up my rock and roll shoes
Hang up my rock and roll shoes On a lonely day
When they put me in my grave
Ain't a worry you need to save
Just hang up my rock and roll shoes So let that motor run
Headed out towards the sun
I'm in the mood for moving on
But I'll be back someday I don't care where I ride
I'll let my feet decide
Do anything but don't ask that I
Hang up my rock and roll shoes

Songwriters

GRAHAM LYLE, PAUL KENNERLEY Published by Lyrics © Universal Music Publishing Group

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>