The Glorious Ones

Tree63

When you hear the signal, it will be Tree63, exactlyI am someone who got up again
I am someone unshakable
I have seen the earth spinning 'round
And now I understandThey used to keep you on the outside
Now, you're the only survivor
You have spoken with the angels
And your face still shines just like mineWe're the glorious ones, the glorious ones
Forever in the sun, we're the glorious onesAnd tonight we are the strangers
In the darkness underground
We have eternal things in our hands
And tomorrow we rise, so wiseWe're the glorious ones, the glorious ones
Forever in the sun, we're the glorious onesWe're the glorious ones, the glorious ones
Forever in the sun, we're the glorious onesWe're the glorious ones, the glorious ones
Forever in the sun, we're the glorious ones
