Too Late

ASHES dIVIDE

-Chorus 1-
If I could separate
Me from myself, Id stay
Away from meIf you decide Im wrong
if you can wait that long maybe its not too late-Verse 1_
I will not lose you to the melting sky
Or to the mad parade
To the bloody jaws or the firefall
Dont be afraidYou need never know a cold hard heart of stone, or lonely memory
You will never be alone-Chorus 2-
If I could separate
Me from myself, Id stay
Away from meIf you decide Im wrong
If you can wait that long
Maybe its not too late-Verse 2-
I will not lose you
To a world that doesnt care to the monster that would have you Never surrender you
I always will be there
I will be there to Wrap myself around youI will not lose you to the dark or to the night
To the terrible machine
Never let you lose your light-Chorus 3-
If I could separate
Me from myself, Id stay
Away from me
But
If you decide Im wrong
If you can wait that long
Dont fall away from meIf I could separate
Me from myself, Id stay
Away from me
But
If you think I belong

Then stay and keep me strong
Maybe its not too lateToo Late
