

I Couldn't Save You

Kate Voegele

Wait and see, you'll believe, when he's here next to me
That's what I told them
You were my way of trying to prove
The power of transforming
You're outta line, colorblind to the light
But this time it will be different
And I just knew, you'd come through like a flower
That needs a little nutrition, whoa, well But caring ain't enough
No matter what you do
It's tearing my heart out, cause, whoa I couldn't save you
And I didn't want to
Cause I won't embrace you
To fabricate you
You've got your mind set
Don't compromise it
I'll wait for the one who won't make me sigh and say
I couldn't save you Playing hard, empty bar, in a faraway city
I don't know, well
I don't know where you are
But I'm singing to you tonight is that, is that all right?
Well you're a piece of the past
And I can't keep elaborating on us
And I would kill to forget what it is about you
That I, I need so much, oh I gotta remember
No matter what you do
You're just a pretender, oh, oh I couldn't save you
And I didn't want to
Cause I won't embrace you
To fabricate you
You've got your mind set
So, don't compromise it
I'll wait for the one who won't make me sigh and say,
I couldn't save you There's so many things I should've said to you
I'll let you off easy cause I already knew
Somebody as stubborn as yourself won't change
Even if that means suffering, yeah And, well, I couldn't save you
No, I didn't want to
Cause I won't embrace you
To fabricate you

And you've got your mind set
So, don't
Don't compromise it I'll wait for the one who won't make me sigh and say, oh
I'll wait for the one who won't make me sigh and say, oh
I'll wait for the one who won't make me sigh and say I couldn't save you
I couldn't save you
I couldn't save you
