Hollow

Face to Face

I'll never feel again
I'll never feel again
Then I won't have to feel this pain I'm inIf it sounds familiar
Because nothing ever goes the way I've planned
If it sounds peculiar
Then you don't have to try and understandI'll never feel again
I'll never feel again
Then I won't have to feel this pain I'm inI'm not a great example
Of everything the world expects of us
I know I'm no exception
I've questioned everything I used to trust
A question of necessity or lustI'll never feel again
I'll never feel again
Then I won't have to feel this pain I'm inIt's as simple as you make it
And as complicated as who you think you are
