

When The Indians Cry

Vanilla Ninja

Babe, tell me where
Will you sleep tonight
For there's such a pain in my heart
And I got a flame
That's dying inside
And I feel that we soon
Have to partWhen the indians cry
And the eagles die
Cause the winds of change blow again
Then I know that you
Turn the world into blue
And my tears will fall like the rainLove can be so cruel
When the light of hope is gone
I know cause I felt it before
In the desert of fear
I can hear the soal song
Of a love that won't live anymoreWhen the indians cry
And the eagles die
Cause the winds of change blow again
Then I know that you
Turn the world into blue
And my tears will fall like the rainWhen the indians cryWhen the indians cry
And the eagles die
Cause the winds of change blow again
Then I know that you
Turn the world into blue
And my tears will fall like the rainThen I know that you
Turn the world into blue
Then I know that you
Turn the world into blue
And my tears will fall like the rain
Oh, like the rain
