You Move Me

Puressence

Well I know there is something about you girlThough they say that nobody can change the world
In your eyes there's a smile
There's a soothing camomile Makes it feel worth my while, waiting for you girlYou move me
You move me
You move...I must say I was smitten so long ago
I got caught pulled right down by your undertow
Just like the stars always shine
Just like them you can't be mine
Sing a sad Valentine all about you girlYou move me
You move me
You move...I know it's time to stop believing every part of me is wrong
I know it's time to start believing
'cos I need to carry on Without you girlYou move me
You move me
You move me
