

Stranded

Mario

You got me stranded, baby
Stranded, stranded, stranded, I'm so stranded
It's over and done now, and now I'm sitting here
Thinking that I made the mistake of my life, babe
And after having the worst fight, we ever had
I said I wanna move on, baby
For so many days you were only tryin' to love me
I was so immature, baby
From so many girls, I was getting attention
But I'm grown now, and all this spending time
That I didn't wanna do is 'cause I didn't wanna settle down
And it slowly hit your heart that I was killing
Is now all I could think about
Now, I was wrong, baby
When I have the chance, baby
And I ran away, the closest thing to me
Girl, I'm stranded
Girl, I'm stranded, all that we had is gone
And I'm sad, baby, what am I gonna do now?
Girl, I'm stranded, all that we had is gone
And I'm sad, baby, what am I gonna do now?
Listen
None of those, calls that I would receive
When you used to plead for me, asking, "Who is she?"
Have stopped coming in, but girl, I don't even want
Somebody touching me when the chemistry ain't even you and me
'Cause sex with no emotion ain't nothin' to talk about
I'm at the point that I'm looking for rings, baby
'Cause mama used to tell me when your good thing comes around
Boy, you better seize the moment, baby, 'cause nothin'
Is promised tomorrow, girl, I'm stranded
Girl, I'm stranded, all that we had is gone
And I'm sad, baby, what am I gonna do now?
Girl, I'm stranded, all that we had is gone
And I'm sad, baby, what am I gonna do now?
Baby, if I was to change up all of my ways, girl
(If I was to change)
Will you come back to me, to me, bring your lovin' back to me
Your lovin' and all that I'm missing in the two months, three weeks, girl

Will you come back to me, to me, bring your lovin' back to me
(Can't take nobody kissin' you and doin' all the things I used to do, girl)

Girl, I'm stranded, all that we had is gone
And I'm sad, baby, what am I gonna do now?

Girl, I'm stranded, all that we had is gone
(Said, I'm stranded, I can't live without you, baby)

And I'm sad, baby, what am I gonna do now?

Said I'm stranded

I knew you were gone when I saw your keys on the counter
