Lay Me Down

Satsang

Well I,
I stand pretty firm most of the time
Like a tree unto the earth,
My stubborn sense, my birth, and the line

Though I said
We drew the line right there into the sand
We drew the line together
And crossed into forever, hand in hand

I never ever thought that I would be
So in love with you being so in love with me
If it wasn't for you I would probably be
Deep in the ground
Cause only you, only you can lay me down
Only you can lay me down
Only you can lay me down
Only you can lay me down

These feet,
They could've taken me almost anywhere
I used to run them all amok,
Often getting them stuck with no care

The path that,
That used to not exist at all
Well it suddenly is so clear
It leads to you my dear, and you're home

Well I never ever thought I could be
So in love with you being so in love with me
If it wasn't for you I would probably be
Deep in the ground
Cause only you, only you can lay me down
Only you can lay me down
Only you can lay me down
Only you can lay me down

You're all,
You're all that I really need to get by

You're the grass beneath my feet,
You're the air that I breathe and the stars in the sky

I couldn't stray if I tried
Cause in you is where I reside and you're my home
I say I only belong to you, forever and the whole day through
And did you know

That I never ever thought I would be
So in love with you being so in love with me
If it wasn't for you I would probably be
Deep in the ground
Yeah only you, only you can lay me down
Only you can lay me down
Only you can lay me down
Only you can lay me down
