

I'm Gonna Cry

Wilson Pickett

(Cry, cry baby, cry baby) I knew from the start that you would break my heart, oh yeah
I want you so bad, oh made me sad, child, oh yeah
I'm gonna cry (cry, cry baby, cry baby) Well I thought I could love you, walk out & forget, yes I did
But now that I can't have you, baby, you know I'm all upset, child, oh yeah
I'm gonna cry (cry, cry baby, cry baby) (If you knew she didn't love you, why did you kiss her lips?)
I never knew love could be this way, baby
(If you knew she didn't love you, why didn't you resist?)
Because a woman is so doggone hard to find
I'm gonna cry (cry, cry baby, cry baby)
Cry baby, cry baby, cry baby
Cry, cry baby, cry baby) (If you knew she didn't love you, why did you kiss her lips?)
I never knew love could be this way, baby
(If you knew she didn't love you, why didn't you resist?)
Because a woman is so doggone hard to find
I'm gonna cry (cry, cry baby, cry baby) (Cry, cry, cry, cry baby)
