

Donkey Kong Suicide

The Melodics

I feel like life is a video game
Played over and over like groundhog day
And even though Iâ€™ve found my way
The soundtrack always sounds the same.
And I know that I'm the outsider;
Thatâ€™s why I speak with the spiders.
Iâ€™m just another rhyme writer,
Spitting my diatribe on synthesizers

Feel like life is a video game
With critical acclaim like citizen Kane
Can I do this til the images fade,
Wake up the next day and do it again
And its all dodging obstacles,
Playing cards with a dodgy Octopus
Even though Iâ€™m thick skinned,
Iâ€™m still trying to fit in- just like the rhinoceros

Say lightening donâ€™t strike twice, in the same place, your life.
Well I guess that I paid the price for taking their advice
Now I got an electric mind, an electro heart beat, beatin time
Now I got an electric mind

Did you feel the explosion
When I fell from the sky
Did you hear the explosion
Itâ€™s Donkey Kong Suicide

Game Over, Game Over
Feel like Iâ€™m Sisyphus pushing up the boulder
And Iâ€™m only getting older
Living life to the babble of a revolver
The world heats up and smoulders
Meanwhile the minds get colder
And we fall just like tin soldiers,
Domino effect as they topple their composure
Am I alone, Can you feel the explosion
Iâ€™m just over the fear and the loathing
Am I alone, Can you feel the erosion

The mountain versus the big Fken ocean

And I know I'm the outsider, that's why I speak with the spiders.
I'm just another rhyme rider spitting my diatribe and synthesizers

Say lightning doesn't strike twice, in the same place, your life.

Well I guess that I paid the price for taking their advice
Now I got an electric mind, an electro heart beat, beatin time
Now I got an electric mind

Did you feel the explosion
When I fell from the sky
Did you hear the explosion
It's Donkey Kong Suicide (x2)

When all is said and done, were all flying towards the sun,
Icarus wings melting love
Stone in your chest it weighs a ton.
Scared of heights, so we jump;
Game over before we've begun
Deep and lowly, highly strung
Hear the explosion, the sound of the gun

When all is said and done, were all flying towards the sun,
Icarus wings melting love
Stone in your chest it weighs a ton.
Scared of heights, so we jump;
Game over before we've begun
Deep and lowly, highly strung
Hear the explosion, the sound of the gun
