Baby You're Right

BABE

It's all in your head now
Don't go to bed now
You're gonna leaveTaking it outside
Tell me it's alright
Just what I needBaby you're right
I'm anxious to run
Saying goodbye
Like leaving the sunWe smoke on a rooftop
Sirens that won't stop
Who's gonna careAlways debating
Times that are fading
A room full of staresBaby you're right
I'm anxious to run
Saying goodbye
Like leaving the sunBaby you're right
I'm anxious to run
Saying goodbye
Like leaving the sunLeaving the sun
It's always up to you
It's always up to you
It's always up to youBaby you're right
I'm anxious to run
Saying goodbye
Like leaving the sunBaby you're right
I'm anxious to run
Saying goodbye
Like leaving the sun
Leaving the sun
Leaving the sun
Run
