

It Doesn't Really Matter Anyway

Cowboy Junkies

It doesn't really matter anyway
It doesn't really matter anyway Singer brought her to tears
But they were my words not hers
What I said or didn't say, no
It doesn't really matter anyway Singer brought her to tears
But they were my words not hers
What I said or didn't say
It doesn't really matter anyway It doesn't really matter anyway
It doesn't really matter anyway
Beside me you looked so small Beside me you looked so small
So I'm the one now that makes you crawl
A misplaced word, nothing brutish
Can serve as the sand to extinguish the flame It doesn't really matter anyway
It doesn't really matter anyway Beside me you looked so small
So I'm the one now that makes you crawl
What I said or didn't say
It doesn't really matter anyway It doesn't really matter anyway
It doesn't really matter anyway
