City Of Sounds

Kathryn Calder

sun dried and overtired long drives and sloppy nights this is the way to make the autumn leaves swayto drown the engines out it takes a city of sounds bring in the rain the icy winds and heat waveshome you can't take it back all i have is what i know when its all been taken away home is where i cannot go we're packed into the hull i'll watch your silhouette crawl behind the door
its the only one openthe night begins to fall we're still here in the hall who wants to lead? to be the first one to leadhome you can't take it back
all i have is what i know
hold my head up
on your shoulders
