Lost

Reactive Black

I'm like a lonely wolf
In another ice-cold night
Like a vampire hiding
From the light - from the light

I'm like a fallen angel
And I got blood on my hands
Now I'm gonna show your tears
The way to my loveless land
Where every day seems like the last
Where every smile is full of pain
Where ethic drugs rage in my veins
I feel my life fades away so fast - so fast

Lost in the shadows of death
Again it feels like a final breath
Too late to say sorry, too late for goodbyes
I'm lost in a nightmare
Where the sun never shines

Patchouli fragrance
Confused our brains
It's like a taste of sin
From sucking all our pain
Graveyard candles send out
Dim lights through the dark
The last thing I'll ever hear
Is the dying beat of your own heart

Lost in the shadows of death
Again it feels like my final breath
Too late to say sorry, too late for goodbyes
I'm lost in the nightmare
Where the sun never shines

I don't believe in nothing and I don't believe in you
There's no damned god to take this fear away - away
We've been kings and queens of self-destruction
We're just kings and queens of self-destruction

Yes we are!

Too late to say sorry!
