Crystal Eyes

The Scabs

Crystal eyes, she gazes
Like a desert flower in the morning rain
She's well aware of every promise made
Yes, she's a child of light in a world of painOh, let her be free, oh, Holy Zion
Oh, give us eyes to see, something to rely onCrystal eyes, I still love you
You are my one desire
Crystal eyes, I can't live without your touch
You're my crystal eyesCrystal eyes, she don't say much
But she sees right through your thin disguise
You'll never know, she comes and goes
Slips through the veil of the dead of nightOh, let her be free, oh, Holy Zion
Oh, give us eyes to see, something to rely onCrystal eyes, I still love you, oh yeah
You are my one desire, yes
Crystal eyes, I can't live without your touch
You're my crystal eyesCrystal eyes, she's an angel
That fell to earth like a gift from God
And sweet, serene, skin like cream
My love protects your every thoughtOh, let her be free, oh, Holy Zion
Oh, give us eyes to see, something to rely on, yeahCrystal eyes, I still love you, oh yeah
You are my one desire
Crystal eyes, I can't live without your touch
You're my crystal eyesCrystal eyes, I still love you, oh yeah, alright now
You are my one desire
Crystal eyes, I can't live without your touch
You're my crystal eyesCrystal eyes
