Into the Free

Turisas

The sweetest morning call
Last marking on the wall
Bundled sheets across the floor, tangled hay galoreI've counted down the time
The souls blood in my mind [?]
Today is the day I leave all of this behindMy time here is over
The future starts today
A new beginning, somewhere far awayI did my time, it's over
I served my days and swore
The day I walk out through that gate, I'm coming back no moreThis evil knight's walking fore this day [?]
The time I've wasted, what did I gain? FUCK ALL![Screaming]Not coming back, I have no doubt
My time is done, I am checking out, I AM FREE!My time is done I'm free!And when some nights have past
The day is here at last
Seasons came and seasons went
They all went by so fastHear the distant knell
The chiming of my bell
The time to move on has come, this is farewellMy time here is over
The future starts today
A new beginning, somewhere far awayI did my time, it's over
I served my days and swore
The day I walk out through that gate, I'm coming back no moreMy time is done I'm free!My time is done I'm free! (Oi oi!)
Free! (Oi oi!)
Free! (Oi oi!)My time is done I'm free! (Oi oi!)
Free! (Oi oi!)
Free! (Oi oi!)
