You Do The Same For Me

Dave Barnes

Tell me everything 'Cause I can see it in your eyes There's a story there these tears Won't tell me why Oh, and don't be strong Isn't that what got you here? Wanderin' in this dark alone Among your fears Let me know what I can do To bear this weight here with you You do the same for me Oh, you do the same You're the blood when my heart won't beat Oh, you do the same So I hold the light in this night So your eyes can see You do the same for me This circumstance It is such a common thing We're all butterflies With broken wings

Let me know what I can do To bear this weight here with you You do the same for me Oh, you do the same You're the blood when my heart won't beat Oh, you do the same So I hold the light in this night So your eyes can see You do the same for me Life will never leave us alone So I'll never leave you alone You do the same for me Oh, you do the same You're the blood when my heart won't beat Oh, you do the same And I hold the light in this night So your eyes can see

You do the same for me You do the same, the same for me
