

You and Me

Solomon Burke

I won't tell anybody

I swear to keep it a secret You and me, we can be alone

Walking through a world of our own I don't care what they say but

I don't want to hear their opinions You and me, we can be alone

Walking through a world of our own Don't think, it's only silly

If I go, you're gonna miss me You and me, we can be alone

Walking through a world of our own

Walking through a world of our own
