

When Crimson Lips Spell Murder

Star Scream

Time is a broken glass and the memories shatter so fast
Time is a broken glass, cut on shards of a love that has passedMy love, your crimson lips spell murder
That night, blood kisses on my face
Im slain, pain in my blood-valve chamber
And now the sands have slipped awayTime is a broken glass and the memories shatter so fast
Time is a broken glass, cut on shards of a love that has passedLove, now as I watch you closer
My heart, bewitched by tender lies
I try, although my eyes grow dimmer
To catch just one last ruby smileTime is a broken glass and the memories shatter so fast
Time is a broken glass, cut on shards of a love that has passedMy hands are bleeding, cut on our romance
