

Run Over

Bri (Briana Babineaux)

What do you give a God that owns it all?
What do u have that will ever be enough?
Gonna lay my life down
Gonna lift my love up
I know it's not much but here's my love
Let my love run over on you
let my love run over on you
let my love run over on you let my love run over and over and over on you What do you give a God that owns it all?
What do u have that will ever be enough?
Gonna lay my life down
Gonna lift my love up
I know it's not much but here's my love
Let my love run over on you
let my love run over on you
let my love run over on you let my love run over and over and over on you This love this life
Every inch of my soul
It belongs to you oh lord X4
let my love run over on you
let my love run over on you let my love run over nd over and over and over on you
