Religion

Switched

Yeah
take back the blood that you shed ive lost these things in your head like constant pounding i drill the enemy like you (strength) its all i need (faith)
keeps' calling meforsake the ways of the world pray to me in your dreams pray to me your god i'll be cannot fight for anything anything at all
its my own religion
but like a dagger in my chest i fall to my knees
its my own religion
its my own religion
can't take the hate that you bring i resolve to end it all and its so hard to believe i was once like you (strength)
keeps' calling me forsake the ways of the world
its my own religion
its my own religion
i tried to stop this life from ever having i wish this pain would subside in my life ive..ive..
its my own religion
take back the blood that you shed
