

Avalanche

Marie Digby

Since when do you come around?
And the temperature's changed
Nothing's the same, left me in yesterday
You don't see me that way, touch me that way no more
When'd you get so cold?
I'm not sure just how much longer I can hold
You got me standing at the bottom of this mountain that we've made
And the ground is shaking from all of our mistakes
But there's no one, nothing but us is in our way
It's a matter of time, we can rewind
If only you knew what my heart must do for you
I'm tryna break through
Don't you think it's worth the chance?
Let's leave the past, is that too much to ask?
And where do we stand?
Can we pull through this avalanche?
Avalanche, avalanche, this avalanche
Avalanche, avalanche
Can we pull through this avalanche?
Avalanche, avalanche, this avalanche
Avalanche, avalanche, avalanche
We see what's up ahead
Why do we stay watching us fading?
Trapped in by regret
There's no way out and there's no way in, no
And it's so cold
I'm not sure just how much longer I can hold
You got me standing at the bottom of this mountain that we've made
And the ground is shaking from all of our mistakes
But there's no one, nothing but us is in our way
It's a matter of time, we can rewind
If only you knew what my heart must do for you
I'm tryna break through
Don't you think it's worth the chance?
Let's leave the past, is that too much to ask?
And where do we stand?
Can we pull through this avalanche?
Avalanche, avalanche, this avalanche
Avalanche, avalanche

Can we pull through this avalanche?
Avalanche, avalanche, this avalanche
Avalanche, avalanche, avalanche
The bond is breaking
And it's taking over my spirit quickly, quickly
Something's shifted
Have we drifted too far apart now?
If only you knew what my heart must do for you
I'm tryna break through
Don't you think it's worth the chance?
Let's leave the past, is that too much to ask?
And where do we stand?
Can we pull through this avalanche?
Avalanche, avalanche, this avalanche
Avalanche, avalanche
Can we pull through this avalanche?
Avalanche, avalanche, this avalanche
Avalanche, avalanche, avalanche
