

Skin Deep

Jody Watley

This attraction only to appearance
Becoming your religion, looks are everything
The only thing that means something to you
 Satisfaction only on the surface
 Your eyes are always focused
 Go on and let it show that
 There is no exception to the rule
 So fill the empty space
 With another pretty face
 You're skin deep, skin deep
 No one will ever be perfect in your eyes
 You're skin deep, skin deep
 Only scratching the surface for your prize
 First impressions are over in an instant
You make your decision before you speak a word
 You end, you search the page already turned Every conquest filled with disappointment
 Lacking any substance
 Now you're out of words
The lines are blurred you're never gonna learn
 So fill the empty space
 With another pretty face
 You're skin deep, skin deep
 No one will ever be perfect in your eyes
 You're skin deep, skin deep
 Only scratching the surface for your prize
 You're skin deep, skin deep
 No one will ever be perfect in your eyes
 You're skin deep, skin deep
 Only scratching the surface for your prize
 Look, all your life for beauty this fine
 So rare so hard to find
 Look, all your life for beauty this fine
 Never mind what's inside
 You're skin deep, skin deep
 No one will ever be perfect in your eyes
 You're skin deep, skin deep
 Only scratching the surface for your prize

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlrics.com/>