So Far Away

Red

I am right here with you
I couldn't more close
Pretending that I'm in this moment
When I'm only a ghost

I listen to the words you're saying
Words I'm fighting to believe
It's like I'm living from a distance
When you're out of reach

I wanna feel it when I mean it when I say it can you hear me at all

And I feel so far away, far away from everything
Outside wondering when I got lost
I threw my arms up in the air, why do I disappear
How can your love be so close
When I'm so far away

Remember when you found me drowning
You put me from the deepest end
I promised that I'll never leave you
Now I'm drowning again

It's killing me with every breath
Witnessing the life I lived
Only you know who I am
I'm reaching out my hand

I wanna feel it when I mean it when I say it can you hear me at all

And I feel so far away, far away from everything
Outside wondering when I got lost
I threw my arms up in the air, why do I disappear
How can your love be so close
When I'm so far away

I'm so far away, I'm so far away, I'm so far away, I'm so far away, I'm so far away
Yeah yeah

And I don't wanna waste time

Living a half life
Are you listening
Now give it back to me
I remember everything
The way it used to be
Ye give it back to me
Ye give it back to me
I hear your voice
But inside I'm lost

And I feel so far away, far away from everything
Outside wondering when I got lost
I threw my arms up in the air, why do I disappear
How can your love be so close
When I'm so far away

I'm so far away
I'm so far away
