Cruel Man

Bering Strait

I thought I would hate you, but I can't
I wish I could leave you, but I stay
I say I could walk a thousand miles just to get away
Coming back again'Cause I'm in love with a cruel man
He doesn't care about my pain
Only brings it
He's got the keys to every door in my soul
That's why I'm here when he's gone
WaitingI've faded to nothing, my colors washed away
It can't get any worse means I'm gonna be okay
And you won't read any word of this story
Looking at my face'Cause I'm in love with a cruel man
He doesn't care about my pain
Only brings it
He's got the keys to every door in my soul
That's why I'm here when he's gone, goneCan't explain why I need you
Lie to myself that I can reach you
Don't wanna believe all the stories
They're telling about you
I'm punished for nothing'Cause I'm in love with a cruel man
He doesn't care about my pain
Only brings it
He's got the keys to every door in my soul
That's why I'm here when he's gone
That's why I'm here when he's gone
