Kalpataru Tree

All the pain is mine leave your guilt behind
I'm not dying for you
All my wounds are real and my scars won't heal
A world drenched in bloodBurn my eyes, I see the world without them
Terrified, you feel my pain
Slit open the sky, and let out my stars
Look inside, it'll make you drownTake me now, burn with your lips
Lick me free, from grey realityMy scars are whispers of...need
And shaded eyes are filled with grief
I feel you burning through my veins
Make love to me then shove me down the drainI will never fear again...neverCome crucify me, come and nail me down
Just crucify me, all the pain is mineI feel her roaring through my soul
She got ways to make me crawlMy scars are whispers of...need
And shaded eyes are filled with grief
I feel you burning through my veins
Make love to me then shove me down the drain
