Physical

St. Lucia

[Verse 1]
Open up my eyes, and feeling light
Flooding in like an ocean
It's a simple game but now the message
In your eyes it is broken
And I'm a mess
I can't explain
What's on your face but I
I can see it there
Will we open up our eyes
And believe we have fallen
For something physical[Chorus]
I'm carried away into the secrets
Can you see it baby
And I'll open the gates
It is my repetition disposition[Verse 2]
We know the call and it's coming
In [?]
I'm an open book but I guess everyone's
Got something to close them
So hold me back
I can't [?]
I'm in a tight squeeze
And you're wrapped up in lace
Now who's the one wearing the pants
When the direction is open
It must be physical[Chorus]
I'm carried away into the secrets
Can you see it baby
And I'll open the gates
It is my repetition disposition[Chorus]
I get carried away into the secrets
Can you see it baby
And I'll open the gates
It is my repetition disposition[Bridge]
Demolition intuition
I can feel the bridge is giving
Once the secret isn't secret
Hold me as we fall

Cause I'll take it from you baby
I don't want to be alone
We could call it the truth baby
I don't want to be alone
My body's yours tonight[Chorus]
I'm carried away into the secrets
Can you see it baby
And I'll open the gates
It is my repetition disposition[Chorus]
I get carried away into the secrets
Can you see it baby
And I'll open the gates
It is my repetition disposition
