

Record of Love

Pretend

over the underground (???) undone to become warm (???) as the others breathe (???) you cannot be for real hoping to see anyone to be with you choke on the words you would offer to me and I can see what I've done as I become removing what I've begun because I love you with your eyes closing to the sky you're so beautiful when (???) to the record of love it's the record of love and I can see the opposite of (???) as she descends the steps aligning with (???) singing, o, hallelujah over the surface we'll lay at the end of her day to relax into this space with you takes courage to know this feeling will soon fade
