

Like a Fox

Imaginitis

Wake up my dreams were so much harder than yours
The night turns to day and the sunshine sharpens her claws
Save the dreaming for the dayJust a phase, out of touch
 Foul play fortress, run amok
 Higher than youve flown before
Gravity beckons the floorLike a fox, from a gun
 Come unstuck then come undone
 She will soon, depart arrive
 Due in time to keep the night alive
Save the dreaming for the dayStreet lights, head lights
 Red lights, heed to green
Tree lights, mirrors, free for greedLong hair, short hair
 Apartheid, bleached hair frown
 Our cogs still
 Turn in beat in time
