

Redemption

Useless ID

Run away. It's time to break the silence.
You've been in decline for far too long
Seven days you lie awake at night It's over when you reach the other side. Don't wait around for someone to leave behind the weight you had to carry
That day may never come.
It's not too late to save you now.
you'll have to make it on your own. Run away this time,
not a fear inside you will survive, hope will set you free. Don't wait around for someone to leave behind the weight you had to carry
That day may never come.
It's not too late to save you now.
you'll have to make it on your own. Can you dig a tunnel through the wall? help yourself find a way out.
Can you dig a tunnel through the wall? help yourself find a way out.
Can you dig a tunnel through the wall? help yourself find a way out.
Can you dig a tunnel through the wall? help yourself find a way out.
find a way out. Can you dig a tunnel through the wall? Sing the song of redemption. Don't wait around for someone to leave behind the weight you had to carry
That day may never come.
It's not too late to save you now.
For eternity.
