

You're Just a Baby

Belle and Sebastian

You're just a baby, baby girl
So kiss me on the cheek and then go off to school
You're just a baby, baby girl
So kiss me on the cheek before you know what's cool You will be leaving in the morning
And I won't be there to see you go off you're head
Yeah, you will be working in the morning
And I won't be there to see you go off you're head There must be a reason for all the looks we gave
And all the things we never said before
So what's the score?
There must be a reason for all the looks we gave
And all the things we never said before, before You're just a baby, baby girl
So kiss me on the cheek before you know what's sweet
You're just a baby, baby girl
So kiss me on the cheek before you go to sleep You will be working in the morning
And I won't be there to see you go off you're head
Yeah, you will be crying in the morning
And I won't be there to see you go off you're head There must be a reason for all the looks we gave
And all the things we never said before
So what's the score?
There must be a reason for all the looks we gave
And all the things we never said before, before You're such a baby, baby girl
So kiss me on the cheek before you to sleep
You're such a baby, baby girl
So let go of my hand so we can get some sleep You will be crying in the morning
And I won't be there to see you go off you're head
'Cause you will be married in the morning
And I won't be there to see you go off you're head And there must be a reason for all the looks we gave
And all the things we never said before
So what's the score?
There must be a reason for all the looks we gave
And all the things we never said before
So what's the reason for all the looks we gave
And all the things we never said before, before, before, before
