Caught Up in Love

J Moss

(You caught me in love)
You changed my life the day I said yes to you
You made a difference nobody else could seem to do
Nobody else could make me change all of my ways
And say the words that take pain away
Nobody else can do the things that help you prove That my world could not exist without youTell me how
How many times can you run away
before youre caught in love
I thought it couldnt be done
Tell me how
How many times can you smile all day before youre caught in love
I thought it couldnt be done
(I was wrong)
You caught me
(ayye, ayye, ayye, ayye, ayye, ayye...)
You caught me
(ayye, ayye, ayye, ayye, ayye, ayye...)
You caught me in loveYou make dreams out of impossible it seems (anybody know what Im talking bout)
You make my life flow with all amazing things
Nobody else has a name
That will break away the chains
And free me from all bondage (Father)
Nobody else can take me further than a plane
To the place that bears no heartacheHow many times can you run away
before youre caught in love
I thought it couldnt be done
How many times can you smile all day
before youre caught in love
I thought it couldnt be done
(but I was wrong)
You caught me
(ayye, ayye, ayye, ayye, ayye, ayye...)
You caught me
(ayye, ayye, ayye, ayye, ayye, ayye...)
You caught me
(ayye, ayye, ayye, ayye, ayye, ayye...)
You caught me

(ayye, ayye, ayye, ayye, ayye, ayye...)
You caught me in loveHow many times can you run away
Before youre caught in love
I thought it couldnt be done
But I didnt know what I was missing
How many time can you smile all day
Before youre caught in love
I thought it couldnt be done
How many times can you run away
Before youre caught in love
How many times can you smile all day
Before youre caught in love
I thought it couldnt be done
You caught me in love
