

This Town

Lux Courageous

We've made up our minds
This is all we could make of all you believed
Wherever the should be has gone
We can lay our collars like a fond farewell
And over their heads it keeps hanging like a stone
And the longer they stare
You know that the more it's gonna hurt
They just keep losing sleep
What's wrong with everyone around this town?
Fools will believe, fools will believe in us now

We made up our minds
This is all we could make of all you believed
Wherever the should be has gone
We can lay our collars down
Over their heads, it keeps hanging like a stone
And the longer they stare
You know that's the more it's gonna hurt
They just keep losing sleep
What's wrong with everyone around this town?
Fools will believe, fools will believe in us now
Hey, fools will believe in us now
Hey, fools will believe in us now

Save breath and hope for the best
Just in time to save these idle hands
Save breath, maybe it's been far too long
Must we spell it on our chests?
How can we make you believe?
What's wrong with everyone around this town?
Fools will believe, fools will believe in us now
Hey, fools will believe in us now
Hey, fools will believe, believe in us now
